YOU ARE INVITED TO ATTEND A SPECIAL BUSINESS EVENT:

GIVING AS A STRATEGY

We often associate Corporate Social Responsibility with large corporations. In this panel discussion with leading experts we'll be challenging the stereotype by highlighting just how many ways you can contribute to making a difference.

Many start-ups and small businesses feel they need to have 'made it' before they can start a giving and volunteering strategy. Our panel will investigate and examine the many ways you can be a philanthropist and how it can help you grow and promote your business whilst developing a wonderful and committed employee culture along the way.

OUR TALENTED PANEL WILL INCLUDE:

Tom Kooy

Angel investor,
Executive Chair
at Feedmee and Venture Coach

Tanya Finnie

Director
RedHead
Communications

Skye Gilligan

Founding
Director of Gilligan Group

Lacey Filipich

Co-Founder and Director of Money School

Alicia Curtis

Founder at Alyceum

The event will be MC'd by Sue Pember, passionate entrepreneur and a Rare Birds Global Ambassador, and is proudly sponsored by
